

University of Vaasa

Vaasa sits on Finland's west coast and is closely tied to maritime trade and the Kvarken Archipelago. The University of Vaasa excels in business, management, and international connections. This compact city radiates a friendly, seaside charm.

Attractions:

- Vaasa Market Hall: A bustling indoor market with local products.
- Tropiclandia: A water park ideal for family fun.

Traditional Foods:

- Kalakukko: Fish baked inside a rye bread crust.
- Karjalanpaisti: Finnish stew made with assorted meats and root vegetables.

Erasmus Link: <https://www.uwasa.fi/en/for-students/exchange-studies>

Monthly grant: 520€