

Hasselt University

Hasselt is a cozy Belgian city in Limburg, known for its jenever (gin) distilleries and pedestrian-friendly center. This welcoming place hosts cultural events year-round and boasts lively shopping streets. Hasselt University emphasizes innovative research and student-oriented teaching. Surrounded by green spaces, the city offers a relaxed, modern atmosphere while retaining its historic charm.

Attractions:

- Japanese Garden: Europe's largest authentic Japanese garden, perfect for a tranquil stroll.
- Fashion Museum (Modemuseum): Showcases fashion exhibits reflecting Hasselt's chic side.

Traditional Foods:

- Carbonade Flamande: A sweet-and-sour beef stew cooked in Belgian beer.
- Hasseltse Speculaas: Spiced biscuits with a crunchy texture, iconic in the region.

Erasmus Link: <https://www.uhasselt.be/exchange>

Monthly grant: 470€