

University of Southern Denmark

Odense, Denmark's third-largest city, is the birthplace of Hans Christian Andersen. With its charming Old Town and bicycling culture, it hosts the University of Southern Denmark, celebrated for diverse faculties and research excellence.

Attractions:

- Hans Christian Andersen Museum: Dedicated to the famous fairy-tale writer.
- Odense Cathedral (St. Canute's): A historic Gothic cathedral in the city center.

Traditional Foods:

- Smørrebrød: Open-faced sandwiches with various toppings.
- Frikadeller: Tasty Danish meatballs often served with potatoes.

Erasmus Link: <https://www.sdu.dk/en/uddannelse/exchange>

Monthly grant: 520€